U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Committee to Handle Projects for Improvement of War
Food Administration's Services to Negro Farmers

The following are named as a committee to handle the projects for improvement of the War Food Administration's services to Negro farmers in the interests of increased food production. Mr. Russell is designated as chairman of the committee.

J. S. Russell, Assistant to the Administrator
Ivy Duggan, Director, Southern Division, AAA
M. L. Wilson, Director of Extension

The functions will be to cooperate with Mr. Claude A. Barnett, Director of Associated Negro Press, and Dr. F. D. Patterson, President of Tuskegee Institute, who will serve as special assistants for the development of reports and recommendations for the improvement of War Food Administration procedures in bringing the assistance of the Extension Services, the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, and the Soil Conservation Service to Negro farmers.
